

Stéphane Frank

Partner

sfrank@gibsondunn.com

T: +32 2 554 72 07

Brussels

Stéphane Frank is a French qualified lawyer and member of the Brussels Bar. He is a partner based in the Brussels office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher and specializes in EU and French Competition Law. Stéphane has significant experience in abuse of dominance, cartel enforcement and other behavioral matters. He has advised a variety of clients active in the technology, financial, chemicals, heavy industry, energy, and aeronautics sectors.

Stéphane also has broad experience in merger control in Europe and in the coordination of global multi-jurisdictional merger filings. He has appellate experience before the Court of Justice of the European Union.

Legal 500 EMEA 2023 recommends Stéphane in its Competition: EU And Global category, highlighting that he “works on abuse of dominance investigations in a variety of industries.”

He speaks fluent English and French.

Capabilities

Antitrust and Competition
Litigation

Credentials

Education

University of Chicago Law School - 2011
Master of Laws (LL.M.)
Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne -
2010 Master en Droit
Université Panthéon-Assas - 2009 Master
en Droit

Admissions

Belgium - Barreau de Bruxelles
France - Avocat au Barreau de Paris