Jin Hee is a Finance partner in the New York office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. She has extensive experience advising sponsors, borrowers, arrangers, agents and lenders, including alternative credit providers, complex U.S. and international syndicated loan transactions, and direct lending financing.

Jin Hee's experience spans various sectors, including biotech, fintech, renewables, manufacturing, telecommunications, media, gaming and financial services. Her private equity sponsor clients have included Veritas Capital, Elliott Investment Management, Suvretta Capital Management, L. Catterton, Oak Tree Capital, Eurazeo North America, Aurora Capital and Banco BTS Pactual S.A.. Jin Hee also represents public company clients in their financings, including Coupang, Excelerate Energy and BioCryst Pharmaceuticals.

Jin Hee's lender and arranger-side practice includes representation of large banking institutions, including Bank of America, and private credit funds and investors, including Braidwell Management Company, Royalty Pharma, RTW Investments and GIC.

In addition to her general transactional financing practice, Jin Hee has an in-depth knowledge of UCC Article 9 and both domestic and cross-border intercreditor issues. Clients have described Jin Hee in The Legal 500 as "a trusted advisor...[who] properly advises in structuring complicated syndicated lending transactions" and "an excellent resource for market information [who] has been able to guide our thinking in terms of different potential financing options."

Jin Hee received her Juris Doctor from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, where she was a member of the University of Pennsylvania Law Review, graduated cum laude and was elected to the Order of the Coif. She received her Bachelor of Arts, with distinction in her major, from Yale University.
